SUNBIRD² COLLECTION

16

We've been helping you get outside for almost 40 years, by building uncompromised product that gets you and your gear to wherever you're going. We believe the outdoor experience is enhanced when you have incredibly comfortable, intelligently designed, premium quality equipment you can trust without question.

We are relentless about this simple, but also very challenging product creation philosophy, because we know that getting out—whether to scale a mountain peak or pedal across town—is paramount to our quality of life. We feel like anything and everything we love to do is simply better when we do it outside. So above all else, we do not compromise on the time we spend under open skies with our compadres in life, and the products we build are a direct result of this philosophy.

AVENUES COLLECTION

MILLCREEK | PIERPONT | I - STREET

Not every outing is a weeklong trek through the mountains, but every mission deserves proper ground support. Inspired by our hometown, where the mountains rise behind a metropolitan skyline, the Avenues packs tackle everyday challenges—bike commuting, pavement pounding, rush-hour crowd surfing—with modern designs that honor our rugged traditions. Weather-resistant and wicked tough, these packs can tackle a weekend trip or crosstown traffic like seasoned pros.

MILLCREEK ⁷⁴⁴⁶¹

We brought all-new heavy-duty tarpaulin fabrics and modern features to an old-school haul bag, and we called it the Millcreek. An uncluttered exterior helps this compact commuter split lanes on your way to the office, and bucket-style access makes packing a snap, so you can get up the canyon to the crag before sundown.

The Pierpont's heavy TPE-backed tarpaulin fabric body, water-resistant external zippers, and weather-shielding cover flap pull triple duty to safeguard your daily essentials, while signature Gregory comfort makes this pack ideal for long days on foot, in the saddle, or clocking layovers in every terminal from here to Nicaragua.

SUNBIRD² COLLECTION

FAR OUT DAY² | KLETTNER DAY² | OFFSHORE DAY²
COASTAL DAY² | DUFFLE²

In the early 70's, before there was a Gregory brand, our founder Wayne Gregory built packs under another flag: Sunbird. We've made it our mission to keep that history alive, with a series of packs and bags derived from photos and well-worn artifacts from those first few years.

The difference between a Sunbird bag and every other vintage copycat on the market is simple: uncompromised materials and construction, highlighting a craft not often evident in today's daypack offerings. The satisfaction of breaking in heavy-duty polyester canvas and genuine U.S.A. chrome-tanned leather trims, the feel of high-end foams and stainless steel hardware reminds us and inspires us to experience the outdoors as simply and purely as Wayne's first customers might have in 1977.
